ENGAGE

A GSSM OUTREACH PROGRAM

Are you looking to challenge yourself with learning something new? Do you like to learn while building projects?

Then check out ENGAGE!

Early experiences with STEM help to build students' confidence with new technologies. That's why we've created ENGAGE. Delivered by GSSM's Center for Science Education & Outreach, ENGAGE is designed to impact students through early interest and awareness of STEM studies.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM ENGAGE

Check online for course schedule.

- Multiple sessions of captivating fun learning new skills while building projects.
- Opportunities to connect with GSSM's residential students who will serve as instructors and role models.

NOTE: To successfully complete the ENGAGE experience, attendance at all sessions is required.
